Discover the must-try Cuban dishes at El Meson de Pepe in Key West

Located in Old Town Key West, El Meson de Pepe has been sharing genuine Cuban flavors for more than 40 years. This guide walks you through the standout dishes that define our kitchen — the recipes rooted in tradition, the small plates perfect for sharing, and the desserts that finish the meal on a sweet note. Whether you live here or are visiting, these picks will help you explore our menu and get the most from a meal with us. From hearty entrees to classic sweets, we'll point out what to order and why it matters to our Cuban heritage.

Which signature Cuban dishes should you try at our Key West restaurant?

Cuban cooking is all about bold, comforting flavors and honest ingredients. At El Meson de Pepe you'll find the classics done with care — each plate is built to showcase Cuba's culinary traditions and the home-style techniques that make them so memorable.

Dish	Description	Key Ingredients
Ropa Vieja	Tender shredded beef simmered in a rich, tomato-and-pepper sauce	Shredded beef, bell peppers, onions, tomatoes, spices
Cuban Sandwich	A warm, pressed sandwich layered with roasted pork, ham and melted Swiss	Cuban bread, roasted pork, ham, Swiss cheese, pickles, mustard
Picadillo	A savory ground-beef hash brightened with olives and raisins	Ground beef, olives, raisins, tomatoes, spices

Why is Ropa Vieja considered Cuba's national treasure?

Ropa Vieja — literally "old clothes" — carries a long history and deep family roots. Originally from the Canary Islands, it became a Cuban favorite for good reason: slow-braised beef pulled into ribbons and cooked in a fragrant tomato base with peppers and onions. The long simmer brings all the flavors together, so every forkful is comforting and layered. It's a dish that honors resilience, tradition and the simple joy of a well-made meal.

What makes our Cuban sandwich a Key West favorite?

The Cuban sandwich is a Key West staple — crunchy on the outside, warm and melty inside. We stack slow-roasted pork, ham, Swiss cheese, pickles and mustard on authentic Cuban bread, then press it to get that irresistible crisp exterior. It’s simple, balanced and exactly the kind of comforting sandwich that keeps locals and visitors coming back.

Which traditional Cuban meals define our authentic cuisine in Key West?

Traditional Cuban plates favor bold seasoning and hearty portions, shaped by Spain, Africa and the Caribbean. At El Meson de Pepe you’ll taste recipes handed down through generations — dishes that celebrate familiar ingredients and honest cooking.

How is Picadillo prepared to capture Cuban flavors?

Picadillo is a classic that balances savory and sweet. Our version sautés onions and bell peppers, then adds seasoned ground beef, tomatoes and a touch of cumin and oregano. A handful of olives and raisins brings bright, contrasting notes that make the dish feel comforting and complete — perfect over rice or with warm plantains.

What is special about our Lechon Asado and Moros y Cristianos?

Lechón Asado — citrus-garlic marinated roast pork — is a centerpiece at Cuban gatherings. We marinate the pork in a mojo of garlic and citrus, then slow roast it until the meat is tender and the skin has a touch of crisp. Paired with Moros y Cristianos (black beans and white rice), the combo is classic Cuban: soulful, satisfying and built for sharing.

What unique Cuban appetizers and desserts should you experience here?

Cuban meals begin and end with delicious small plates and sweets. At El Meson de Pepe you'll find appetizers that whet the appetite and desserts that round out the experience with authentic, homemade flavors.

Which Cuban appetizers like Papa Rellenas and Tostones Rellenos are must-try?

Start with Papa Rellenas — mashed potatoes stuffed with seasoned ground beef, breaded and fried until golden — or Tostones Rellenos, twice-fried green plantains filled with savory options like shrimp or beef. These bites are perfect for sharing and showcase the textures and flavors that make Cuban appetizers so inviting.

How do our Cuban desserts and coffee complete your dining experience?

No Cuban meal is finished without dessert and strong coffee. Our flan is silky with caramel notes, and the tres leches cake comes moist and richly sponged in three milks. Pair either with a bold cup of Cuban coffee for the genuine finish — a sweet, warming way to end your meal.

How does our dining experience combine authentic food with a vibrant atmosphere?

Eating at El Meson de Pepe is as much about the vibe as the food. Our dining room buzzes with lively conversation, and the décor and music bring a touch of Cuba to Key West. It’s a welcoming spot for family meals, date nights and anything in between.

What role does live salsa music play in enhancing your visit?

Live salsa sets the tone: energetic, rhythmic and joyful. The music creates a festive backdrop that lifts the meal and invites guests to relax, clap along or simply enjoy the beat while they dine. It's part of the full-sensory experience we offer.

Why is our location near Mallory Square perfect for sunset dining?

Just steps from Mallory Square, El Meson de Pepe is ideally placed for sunset views. Come for dinner as the sky changes color and enjoy your meal with water and harbor sights nearby — a memorable setting that pairs beautifully with Cuban food and music.

How can you host private events featuring authentic Cuban cuisine at our restaurant?

El Meson de Pepe is a great choice for private events — from birthdays to corporate dinners. Our space and menus can be tailored to fit the tone and size of your gathering, so your guests leave impressed and well fed.

What private event services and spaces do we offer?

We offer customizable menus highlighting our signature Cuban dishes and flexible seating to suit intimate gatherings or larger parties. Our team handles details from menu planning to service, so you can focus on the celebration.

How to inquire and plan your event with us?

Planning is simple: reach out to our events team to check dates, discuss menu options and note any special requests. We'll work with you to create an event that reflects the warmth and flavor of Cuban culture — seamless and memorable from start to finish.

Frequently Asked Questions

What are the health benefits of traditional Cuban cuisine?

Traditional Cuban food often features vegetables, lean proteins and legumes — think black beans and rice, which provide fiber and protein. Staples like garlic and cumin add flavor without relying on excess salt, and cooking methods like grilling or slow-roasting help preserve nutrients. Enjoyed in moderation, Cuban dishes can be a tasty part of a balanced diet.

Are there vegetarian or vegan options available at El Meson de Pepe?

Yes — we offer vegetarian and vegan choices. Many sides (black beans, rice, yuca) are naturally vegan, and items like Tostones Rellenos can be prepared with plant-based fillings. Let us know your preferences and we'll help you find or adapt dishes to suit your diet.

What is the best time to visit El Meson de Pepe for a lively atmosphere?

Evenings — especially weekends with live salsa — are when the restaurant is most vibrant. Sunset service is also popular for the view and energy. If you prefer a quieter table, consider arriving earlier in the evening or asking for a less central seating area.

How can I make a reservation at El Meson de Pepe?

Reservations are easy: call us or book through our website to check availability. We recommend reserving ahead during peak hours and weekends. If you have a large group or special requests, mention them when you book so we can accommodate you smoothly.

What are the most popular desserts at El Meson de Pepe?

Flan and Tres Leches Cake are favorites — flan for its creamy caramel finish, and tres leches for its moist, indulgent texture. Both are classic choices that guests often pick to close out a meal.

Is El Meson de Pepe family-friendly?

Absolutely. We welcome guests of all ages. Our menu includes options for kids, high chairs are available, and our staff is happy to make family dining comfortable and enjoyable for everyone.
